

Good afternoon,

 I represent TIAA, FSB, located at 301 W. Bay Street, Jacksonville, FL 32202. Pursuant to the requirements of the Maryland Personal Information Protection Act, this email serves as notice to the Office of the Attorney General of a security incident impacting one (1) Maryland resident. Please find attached a sample template of the notice being sent to the resident subsequent to this email.

Brief description of the nature of the security breach and how we responded

The Maryland resident is a victim of a fraud scheme. An unauthorized third party impersonated a TIAA Bank representative and contacted the Maryland resident about fraudulent charges on his or her bank account. The victim provided his or her online credentials to the unauthorized third party who then used the credentials to gain access to the victim's bank account and attempt to conduct money movement activity. While inside the account, the unauthorized third party may have been able to view the victim's full name and financial account number. We promptly discovered the activity, shut down access to the online account, and reversed fraudulent money movement activity. We will be providing the victim credit monitoring and have included in the victim notification letter steps that he or she can take to better protect him or herself from identity theft and fraud.

TIAA Bank has investigated and has no reason to believe that the source of the compromise was TIAA Bank or any TIAA Bank system failure; the victim him or herself provided the unauthorized individual with the credentials to gain access to the online account. The TIAA Bank system integrity has not been compromised from this event.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

This e-mail may contain confidential or privileged information.

If you are not the intended recipient, please notify the sender immediately and then delete it.

RE: NOTICE OF DATA BREACH

Dear NAME:

What happened and how we responded

Protecting the privacy and security of your information is extremely important to us. For this reason, we previously spoke to you by phone about fraudulent activity that occurred on your account after an unauthorized person used your personal information to gain access to your TIAA Bank online account. We have investigated and have no indication that any information was acquired from our systems that would have enabled the initial compromise of your online account. This letter summarizes our conversation and informs you of what we are doing in response and how you can further protect your accounts.

Once we became aware of this incident, we quickly shut down access to your account and helped you change your verbal password, if necessary, and your login credentials. We also have checked your account and have reversed any unauthorized money movement that may have occurred.

What information was involved

The unauthorized individual was already in possession of the User ID and password that you provided to him or her. While in your online account, the unauthorized individual may have viewed the following elements of personal information: your full name and your bank account number.

What you can do

As a measure of good security practices, we recommend that you always check your computer for viruses and remove them.

Then, if you have not already done so, please create a new user ID and password to access your TIAA Bank accounts online. Your new credentials should be a random combination of letters and numbers, and should be only used for your TIAA Bank online account. For added protection we recommend you take the following actions:

- Enable multi-factor authentication, which requires that you enter a one-time passcode each time you access your TIAA Bank online account.
- Place a personalized password to access your TIAA Bank account via our phone center, for an added level of verbal security.¹
- If you receive a suspicious call, text or email from someone claiming to be from TIAA Bank, do not respond, click links or open attachments. If this has happened to you, contact us right away at 1-888-882-3837.
- Do not provide your personal secure information to an unsolicited caller. We will never initiate a call asking you to provide your full account number, online/mobile banking passwords, PINs or complete Social Security number over the phone, except limited instances when we are returning a call at your request.
- Never respond to a phone call or voice mail service asking you to verify account information or reactivate a bank service, even if the caller recites some of your account information to you. They may have obtained the information from another source and are enticing you to provide additional details that would help them access your accounts.

We strongly encourage you to review your online credentials in non-TIAA Bank websites, including your email services, and change them if you were using the same old TIAA Bank user ID and password combination. This will minimize the risk of the unauthorized person's use of your old credentials in non-TIAA Bank accounts. Your user IDs and passwords in each of your online accounts outside TIAA Bank should be unique to each site.

We also recommend that you regularly review statements from your accounts and periodically obtain your credit report from one or more of the national credit reporting companies.

In an abundance of caution, please consider signing up for our complimentary offer of credit monitoring and fraud detection tools, as described below.

When you receive your credit reports, review them carefully. Look for accounts or creditor inquiries that you did not initiate or do not recognize. Look for information, such as home address and Social Security number, that is not accurate. If you see anything you do not understand or identify information that you believe is not correct, call the credit reporting agency at the telephone number on the report.

Credit Freeze

You have the right to put a security freeze, also known as a credit freeze, on your credit file, so that no new credit can be opened in your name without the use of a Personal Identification Number (PIN) that is issued to you when you initiate a freeze. A credit freeze is designed to prevent potential credit grantors from accessing your credit report without your consent. If you place a credit freeze, potential creditors and other third parties will not be able to access your credit report unless you temporarily lift the freeze. Therefore, using a credit freeze may delay your ability to obtain credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact all three major consumer reporting agencies listed below.

- 1) Full name, with middle initial and any suffixes;
- 2) Social Security number;
- 3) Date of birth (month, day, and year);
- 4) Current address and previous addresses for the past five (5) years;
- 5) Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
- 6) Legible photocopy of government-issued identification card (state driver's license or ID card, military identification, etc.);
- 7) If you are a victim of identity theft, include a copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft; and
- 8) Other personal information as required by the applicable credit reporting agency;

Note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse or a minor under the age of 16, this information must be provided for him/her as well. If you request a credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agencies have one (1) business day after receiving your request to place a credit freeze on your credit file report. If you request a lift of the credit freeze online or by phone, then the credit reporting agency must lift the freeze within one (1) hour. If you request a credit freeze or lift of a credit freeze by mail, then the credit agency must place or lift the credit freeze no later than three (3) business days after getting your request.

Fraud Alerts

You also have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on your file at no cost. An initial fraud alert lasts 1-year and is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer's credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting 7 years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the agencies listed below. The agency you contact will then contact the other two credit agencies.
