

Breach Notification – Maryland Office of Attorney General (OAG)

Date: July 28, 2022

Re: Md. Code, CL § 14-3504 – The Personal Information Protection Act (PIPA)

On May 3, 2022, Common Ground Healthcare Cooperative (CGHC) learned that a printing vendor/business associate, OneTouchPoint (OTP), experienced a ransomware attack on or around April 28, 2022. On discovering the potential breach, CGHC immediately ceased the flow of information to OTP. CGHC launched an investigation and collaboratively worked with OTP and Matrix to determine the extent of potential harm to CGHC members. However, CGHC did not receive confirmation that CGHC PHI was affected until June 13, 2022.

OTP processes CGHC PHI submitted directly by CGHC to OTP and CGHC's vendor/business associate Matrix. OTP conducted a forensic investigation into the incident to determine the scope and timeline of events and to identify, to the extent possible, whether any data stored by OTP was subject to unauthorized access or acquisition. Based on its investigation, OTP advised that due to data corruption caused by the attack, it could not complete the investigation and ascertain whether CGHC PHI was subject to unauthorized access or acquisition. OTP is providing affected individuals and the media with notice of the incident on behalf of CGHC.

Dear <<Name 1>>:

OneTouchPoint, Inc. ("OTP") writes to notify you of an incident that may affect the privacy of some of your information. OTP is a vendor who provides printing and mailing services to various health insurance carriers and medical providers. To perform these services, OTP was provided certain information related to an Explanation of Benefits (EOB) you received. This letter includes details of the incident, our response, and steps you may take to better protect against possible misuse of your information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On April 28, 2022, OTP discovered encrypted files on certain computer systems. We immediately launched an investigation, with the assistance of third-party forensic specialists, to determine the nature and scope of the activity. Our investigation determined that there was unauthorized access to certain of our servers beginning on April 27, 2022. Through the investigation, we learned that we would be unable to determine what specific files the unauthorized actor viewed within our network. OTP provided a summary of our investigation to our business customers beginning on June 3, 2022. OTP later determined that the impacted systems contained certain information related to you. While we were unable to say definitively if your information was accessed by the unauthorized actor, we are notifying you of the event in an abundance of caution. OTP has seen no evidence of misuse of any information related to this incident. Our business customers' systems were not impacted by this incident.

What Information Was Involved? OTP determined that the following information related to you was present on the impacted OTP servers which was contained on your EOB: name, address, date of birth, Member ID Number, Social Security number, description of service, date of service and diagnosis codes. Your financial information was not impacted by this event.

What We Are Doing. Upon discovery, we immediately commenced an investigation to confirm the nature and scope of the incident. We reported this incident to law enforcement, and we are taking steps to implement additional safeguards and review policies and procedures relating to data privacy and security.

What You Can Do. OTP encourages you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. You can review the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Personal Information for additional details on how to take steps to protect your information, should you feel it is necessary to do so.

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT PERSONAL INFORMATION

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
