Re: The Armstrong Company – Incident Notification

Dear Mr. Brown:

McDonald Hopkins Represents The Armstrong Company (“Armstrong”). I am writing to provide notification of an incident that may affect the security of personal information of approximately sixteen (16) Maryland residents. By providing notice, Armstrong does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maryland law or personal jurisdiction.

Armstrong detected potential unauthorized access to its network as a result of a cybersecurity incident that occurred on March 2, 2023. Armstrong immediately took steps to contain the threat and launched an investigation with the support of third-party experts. After an extensive forensic investigation, Armstrong determined on March 28, 2023 that the information potentially accessed and acquired by the unauthorized individual may have included residents’ personal information, including residents’ full names, Social Security Number, Date of birth, Driver’s License number, Medical and/or Health information.

Armstrong has no reason to believe that any personal information will be misused as a result of this incident. Nevertheless, out of an abundance of caution, Armstrong wanted to inform you (and the affected residents) of the incident and to explain the steps that it is taking to help safeguard the affected residents against identity fraud. Armstrong is providing the affected residents with written notification of this incident commencing on or about April 7, 2023 in substantially the same form as the letter attached hereto. Armstrong is also offering the affected residents complimentary one-year memberships with a credit monitoring service. Armstrong is advising the affected residents to always remain vigilant in reviewing financial account statements for fraudulent or irregular activity on a regular basis. Armstrong is advising the affected residents about the process for placing fraud alerts and/or security freezes on their credit files and obtaining free credit reports. The affected residents are also being provided with the contact information for the consumer reporting agencies, the Maryland Attorney General, and the Federal Trade Commission.

At Armstrong, protecting the privacy of personal information is a top priority. Armstrong is committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information in its possession and has taken many precautions to safeguard it. Armstrong continually evaluates and modifies its practices and internal controls to enhance the security and privacy of personal information.

If you have any additional questions, please contact me at (248) 593-2952 or cbattersby@mcdonaldhopkins.com.

Very truly yours,

Colin M. Battersby

2. Placing a Fraud Alert on Your Credit File.

As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, they will notify the others.

3. Placing a Security Freeze on Your Credit File.

If you are very concerned about becoming a victim of fraud or identity theft, you may request a "security freeze" be placed on your credit file, at no charge. A security freeze prohibits, with certain specific exceptions, the consumer reporting agencies from releasing your credit report or any information from it without your express authorization. You may place a security freeze on your credit report by contacting all three nationwide credit reporting companies at the numbers below and following the stated directions or by sending a request in writing, by mail, to all three credit reporting companies:

Equifax Security Freeze

P.O. Box 105788
Atlanta, GA 30348

TransUnion Security Freeze

P.O. Box 160
Woodlyn, PA 19094
<https://www.transunion.com/credit-freeze>
(888) 909-8872

In order to place the security freeze, you'll need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit reporting company will send you a confirmation letter containing a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

If you do place a security freeze prior to enrolling in the credit monitoring service as described above, you will need to remove the freeze in order to sign up for the credit monitoring service. After you sign up for the credit monitoring service, you may refreeze your credit file.

4. Obtaining a Free Credit Report.

Under federal law, you are entitled to one free credit report every 12 months from each of the above three major nationwide credit reporting companies. Call 1-877-322-8228 or request your free credit reports online at www.annualcreditreport.com. Once you receive your credit reports, review them for discrepancies. Identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. Verify all information is correct. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting company.

5. Additional Helpful Resources.

Even if you do not find any suspicious activity on your initial credit reports, the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) recommends that you check your credit reports periodically. Checking your credit report periodically can help you spot problems and address them quickly.

If you find suspicious activity on your credit reports or have reason to believe your information is being misused, call your local law enforcement agency and file a police report. Be sure to obtain a copy of the police report, as many creditors will want the information it contains to absolve you of the fraudulent debts. You may also file a complaint with the FTC by contacting them on the web at www.ftc.gov/idtheft, by phone at 1-877-IDTHEFT (1-877-438-4338), or by mail at Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580. Your complaint will be added to the FTC's Identity Theft Data Clearinghouse, where it will be accessible to law enforcement for their investigations. In addition, you may obtain information from the FTC about fraud alerts and security freezes.

If this notice letter states that your financial account information and/or credit or debit card information was impacted, we recommend that you contact your financial institution to inquire about steps to take to protect your account, including whether you should close your account or obtain a new account number.

If your personal information has been used to file a false tax return, to open an account or to attempt to open an account in your name or to commit fraud or other crimes against you, you may file a police report in the city in which you currently reside.
