Re: Notice of Data Event

To Whom It May Concern:

We represent KTBS LLC (“KTBS”) located at 312 East Kings Highway, Shreveport, LA 71104, and are writing to notify your office of an incident that may affect the security of certain personal information relating to four (4) Maryland residents. This notice may be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, KTBS does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maryland law, the applicability of the Maryland data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On March 27, 2023, KTBS became aware of suspicious activity related to its network. KTBS immediately took steps to secure its systems and launched an investigation into the nature and scope of the event with the assistance of third-party computer forensic specialists. The investigation determined that an unknown actor gained access to certain systems on the KTBS network and may have accessed and/or acquired certain files and folders from these systems. In response, KTBS reviewed the information stored on the accessed systems in order to identify what information is contained therein and to whom that information relates. On April 24, 2023, KTBS confirmed that information relating to its current and former employees and their dependents and/or beneficiaries may have been impacted. Although there is no evidence that any particular person’s information was actually viewed or acquired by an unauthorized party, KTBS cannot rule out this possibility with absolute certainty. While KTBS is not aware of any actual or attempted fraudulent misuse of sensitive information as a result of this incident, we are notifying potentially impacted individuals out of an abundance of caution.

The information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name, Social Security number, driver’s license number, and financial account information.

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of your credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any one of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a security freeze, you may need to provide the following information, depending on whether the request is made online, by phone, or by mail:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
