Re: Incident Notification

Dear Attorney General Brown:

We are writing on behalf of our client, Mercer University (“Mercer”), to notify you of a data security incident. Mercer is a private research university located in Macon, Georgia.

Mercer recently concluded an investigation into a data security incident affecting certain Mercer computer systems. Upon identifying the incident, Mercer immediately secured the systems involved, alerted law enforcement, and launched an investigation. Through the investigation that began when Mercer learned of the intrusion on April 5, 2023, Mercer determined that between February 12, 2023 and February 24, 2023, an unauthorized actor accessed certain files stored on Mercer’s computer servers. On April 30, 2023, Mercer discovered that some of these files may have included at least one record that contained the personal information of Maryland residents, including their names, in combination with Social Security numbers and/or driver’s license numbers.

On May 24, 2023, Mercer began mailing notification letters via United States Postal Service First-Class mail to the 424 Maryland residents, in accordance with Md. Code Ann., Com. Law § 14-3504.¹ A copy of the notification letter is enclosed. Mercer is offering one year of complimentary identity monitoring and identity theft protection services to the residents and has established a dedicated, toll-free incident response line to answer questions that individuals may have.

Mercer is working with leading experts to help minimize the risk of events such as this from occurring in the future. Mercer has taken, and will continue to take, steps to further enhance the security of the Mercer computer systems and data they maintain.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dear <<first_name>> <<middle_name>> <<last_name>> <<suffix>>:

Mercer University takes the security of our computer systems very seriously. Even so, like many higher education institutions, we recently experienced unlawful access into our computer systems. This notice explains the incident, measures we have taken, and some additional steps you may consider taking in response.

Upon identifying the incident, we immediately secured the systems involved, alerted law enforcement, and launched an investigation. Through the investigation that began when we learned of the intrusion on April 5, 2023, we determined that between February 12, 2023, and February 24, 2023, an unauthorized actor accessed certain files stored on Mercer's computer servers. On April 30, 2023, we discovered that some of these files may have included at least one record that contained your name, in combination with your Social Security number and/or driver's license number.

We are offering complimentary identity theft protection services through a one-year membership with Experian® IdentityWorksSM Credit 3B. This product helps detect possible misuse of your personal information and provides you with identity protection services focused on immediate identification and resolution of identity theft. IdentityWorks is completely free to you and enrolling in this program will not hurt your credit score. For more information on Experian IdentityWorks Credit 3B, including instructions on how to activate your complimentary membership as well as some additional steps you can take to help protect yourself, please see the pages that follow this letter. If you have any questions, please call 866-347-6455 between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:30 p.m., Central Time, excluding major U.S. holidays.

Working with leading experts to help minimize the risk of events such as this from occurring in the future, we have taken, and will continue to take, steps to further enhance the security of our computer systems and the data we maintain.

Sincerely,

ADDITIONAL STEPS YOU CAN TAKE

We remind you it is always advisable to be vigilant for incidents of fraud or identity theft by reviewing your account statements and free credit reports for any unauthorized activity over the next 12–24 months. You may obtain a copy of your credit report, free of charge, once every 12 months from each of the three nationwide credit reporting companies. To order your annual free credit report, please visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call toll free at 1-877-322-8228. Contact information for the three nationwide credit reporting companies is as follows:

- Equifax, PO Box 740241, Atlanta, GA 30374, www.equifax.com, 1-888-378-4329
- Experian, PO Box 2002, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com, 1-888-397-3742
- TransUnion, PO Box 1000, Chester, PA 19016, www.transunion.com, 1-800-916-8800

If you believe you are the victim of identity theft or have reason to believe your personal information has been misused, you should immediately contact the Federal Trade Commission and/or the Attorney General's office in your state. You can obtain information from these sources about steps an individual can take to avoid identity theft as well as information about fraud alerts and security freezes. You should also contact your local law enforcement authorities and file a police report. Obtain a copy of the police report in case you are asked to provide copies to creditors to correct your records. Contact information for the Federal Trade Commission is as follows:

- Federal Trade Commission, Consumer Response Center, 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC 20580, 1-877-IDTHEFT (438-4338), www.identitytheft.gov

Fraud Alerts and Credit or Security Freezes:

Fraud Alerts: There are two types of general fraud alerts you can place on your credit report to put your creditors on notice that you may be a victim of fraud—an initial alert and an extended alert. You may ask that an initial fraud alert be placed on your credit report if you suspect you have been, or are about to be, a victim of identity theft. An initial fraud alert stays on your credit report for one year. You may have an extended alert placed on your credit report if you have already been a victim of identity theft with the appropriate documentary proof. An extended fraud alert stays on your credit report for seven years.

To place a fraud alert on your credit reports, contact one of the nationwide credit bureaus. A fraud alert is free. The credit bureau you contact must tell the other two, and all three will place an alert on their versions of your report.

For those in the military who want to protect their credit while deployed, an Active Duty Military Fraud Alert lasts for one year and can be renewed for the length of your deployment. The credit bureaus will also take you off their marketing lists for pre-screened credit card offers for two years, unless you ask them not to.

Credit or Security Freezes: You have the right to put a credit freeze, also known as a security freeze, on your credit file, free of charge, which makes it more difficult for identity thieves to open new accounts in your name. That is because most creditors need to see your credit report before they approve a new account. If they cannot see your report, they may not extend the credit.

How do I place a freeze on my credit reports? There is no fee to place or lift a security freeze. Unlike a fraud alert, you must separately place a security freeze on your credit file at each credit reporting company. For information and instructions to place a security freeze, contact each of the credit reporting agencies at the addresses below:

- Equifax Security Freeze, PO Box 105788, Atlanta, GA 30348, www.equifax.com
- Experian Security Freeze, PO Box 9554, Allen, TX 75013, www.experian.com
- TransUnion Security Freeze, PO Box 160, Woodlyn, PA 19094, www.transunion.com

You will need to supply your name, address, date of birth, Social Security number and other personal information. After receiving your freeze request, each credit bureau will provide you with a unique PIN (personal identification number) or password. Keep the PIN or password in a safe place. You will need it if you choose to lift the freeze.

How do I lift a freeze? A freeze remains in place until you ask the credit bureau to temporarily lift it or remove it altogether. If the request is made online or by phone, a credit bureau must lift a freeze within one hour. If the request is made by mail, then the bureau must lift the freeze no later than three business days after getting your request.

If you opt for a temporary lift because you are applying for credit or a job, and you can find out which credit bureau the business will contact for your file, you can save some time by lifting the freeze only at that particular credit bureau. Otherwise, you need to make the request with all three credit bureaus.

Mercer University is located at 1501 Mercer University Drive, Macon, GA 31207, and can be reached at (800) 637-2378.

You also have a right to place a security freeze on your credit report, as described above.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act: The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Your major rights under the FCRA are summarized below. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.consumerfinance.gov/learnmore or write to: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20552.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you.
- You have the right to know what is in your file.
- You have the right to ask for a credit score.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information.
- Access to your file is limited.
- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report.
- You have a right to place a “security freeze” on your credit report, which will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing information in your credit report without your express authorization.
- You may seek damages from violators.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights.
