Re: Notice of Data Event

To Whom It May Concern:

We represent The Morey Corporation (“Morey”) located at 100 Morey Drive Woodridge, Illinois 60517, and are writing to notify your office of an incident that may affect the security of certain personal information relating to one (1) Maryland resident. This notice may be supplemented with any new significant facts learned subsequent to its submission. By providing this notice, Morey does not waive any rights or defenses regarding the applicability of Maryland law, the applicability of the Maryland data event notification statute, or personal jurisdiction.

Nature of the Data Event

On April 22, 2023, Morey became aware of suspicious activity on its on-premise servers. Morey immediately took steps to secure its environment and launched an immediate inquiry to determine the full nature and scope of the activity. As a result of the inquiry, Morey initiated a forensic investigation, conducted by third-party forensic specialists in the field. The investigation concluded on July 7, 2023, and it determined that an unauthorized actor gained access to Morey’s on-premise servers between April 18, 2023, and April 23, 2023, and that certain data files were accessed and acquired. Following this determination, Morey conducted a detailed review of the impacted files to assess what, if any, personal information might be contained within the file set. On July 12, 2023, Morey completed its review and confirmed that the information that could have been subject to unauthorized access includes name and Social Security number of one (1) Maryland resident.

Notice to Maryland Resident

On August 1, 2023, Morey provided written notice of this incident to one (1) Maryland resident. Written notice is being provided in substantially the same form as the letter attached here as Exhibit A.

Other Steps Taken and To Be Taken

Upon discovering the event, Morey moved quickly to investigate and respond to the incident, assess the security of Morey systems, and identify potentially affected individuals. Further, Morey notified federal law enforcement regarding the event. Morey is also working to implement additional safeguards and training to its employees. Morey is providing access to credit monitoring services for twelve (12) months, through Experian, to individuals whose personal information was potentially affected by this incident, at no cost to these individuals.

Additionally, Morey is providing impacted individuals with guidance on how to better protect against identity theft and fraud. Morey is providing individuals with information on how to place a fraud alert and security freeze on one's credit file, the contact details for the national consumer reporting agencies, information on how to obtain a free credit report, a reminder to remain vigilant for incidents of fraud and identity theft by reviewing account statements and monitoring free credit reports, and encouragement to contact the Federal Trade Commission, their state Attorney General, and law enforcement to report attempted or actual identity theft and fraud.

Morey is providing written notice of this incident to relevant state regulators, as necessary.

NOTICE OF [Extra1]

Dear Sample A. Sample:

The Morey Corporation ("Morey") writes to inform you of an incident that affected the privacy of some of your personal information. The purpose of this letter is to provide you with details of the incident, our response, and steps you can take to protect your personal information, should you feel it appropriate to do so.

What Happened? On April 22, 2023, Morey became aware of suspicious activity on its on-premise servers. We immediately took steps to secure our environment and launched an immediate inquiry to determine the full nature and scope of the activity. As a result of the inquiry, we initiated a forensic investigation, conducted by third-party forensic specialists in the field. The investigation concluded on July 7, 2023, and it determined that an unauthorized actor gained access to Morey's on-premise servers between April 18, 2023, and April 23, 2023, and that certain data files were accessed and acquired.

Following this determination, Morey conducted a detailed review of the impacted files to assess what, if any, personal information might be contained within the file set. On July 12, we completed the file review and identified the impacted population and associated address information for notice. As a result of this review, you were identified as an individual whose personal information was subject to access and acquisition during the time of this incident.

What Information Was Involved? The information contained in the impacted files includes your name and Social Security number. To date, we are unaware of any actual misuse of this information as a result of the event.

What We Are Doing. The privacy and security of information in our possession is one of our highest priorities. We conducted a thorough investigation to determine the scope of the incident and worked quickly to secure our systems and information. Additionally, we have further enhanced our network security by implementing additional network security monitoring and system access protocols.

While we have no indication of your information being misused in connection with this incident, as an extra precaution, we are offering you access to 12 months of complimentary credit monitoring and identity restoration services through Experian.

What You Can Do. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your account statements and monitoring your free credit reports for suspicious activity and to detect errors. You may also review the information contained in the enclosed Steps You Can Take to Help Protect Your Personal Information. There you will also find more information on the credit monitoring and identity restoration services we are making available to you. While Morey will cover the cost of these services, you will need to complete the activation process. Enrollment instructions are enclosed with this letter.

For More Information. Morey understands you may have questions about this incident that are not addressed in this letter. To answer any questions you may have, please contact our dedicated assistance line at 833-420-2823.

Sincerely,

Dana Morey
Chief Executive Officer
The Morey Corporation

STEPS YOU CAN TAKE TO HELP PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

Enroll in Monitoring Services

To help protect your identity, we are offering complimentary access to Experian IdentityWorksSM for 12 months.

If you believe there was fraudulent use of your information as a result of this incident and would like to discuss how you may be able to resolve those issues, please reach out to an Experian agent. If, after discussing your situation with an agent, it is determined that identity restoration support is needed then an Experian Identity Restoration agent is available to work with you to investigate and resolve each incident of fraud that occurred from the date of the incident (including, as appropriate, helping you with contacting credit grantors to dispute charges and close accounts; assisting you in placing a freeze on your credit file with the three major credit bureaus; and assisting you with contacting government agencies to help restore your identity to its proper condition).

Monitor Your Accounts

Under U.S. law, a consumer is entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion. To order a free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. Consumers may also directly contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below to request a free copy of their credit report.

Consumers have the right to place an initial or extended “fraud alert” on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a 1-year alert that is placed on a consumer’s credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert display on a consumer’s credit file, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer’s identity before extending new credit. If consumers are the victim of identity theft, they are entitled to an extended fraud alert, which is a fraud alert lasting seven years. Should consumers wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, consumers have the right to place a “credit freeze” on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without the consumer’s express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in a consumer’s name without consent. However, consumers should be aware that using a credit freeze to take control over who gets access to the personal and financial information in their credit report may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application they make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, consumers cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on their credit report. To request a credit freeze, individuals may need to provide some or all of the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., II, III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Addresses for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility bill or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (state driver’s license or ID card, etc.); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft if they are a victim of identity theft.

Should consumers wish to place a credit freeze or fraud alert, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:

Additional Information

Consumers may further educate themselves regarding identity theft, fraud alerts, credit freezes, and the steps they can take to protect your personal information by contacting the consumer reporting bureaus, the Federal Trade Commission, or their state Attorney General. The Federal Trade Commission may be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20580; www.identitytheft.gov; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. Consumers can obtain further information on how to file such a complaint by way of the contact information listed above. Consumers have the right to file a police report if they ever experience identity theft or fraud. Please note that in order to file a report with law enforcement for identity theft, consumers will likely need to provide some proof that they have been a victim. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should also be reported to law enforcement and the relevant state Attorney General. This notice has not been delayed by law enforcement.

For District of Columbia residents, the District of Columbia Attorney General may be contacted at: 400 6th Street, NW, Washington, D.C. 20001; 202-727-3400; and oag.dc.gov.

For New Mexico residents, consumers have rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, such as the right to be told if information in their credit file has been used against them, the right to know what is in their credit file, the right to ask for their credit score, and the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. Further, pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act, the consumer reporting bureaus must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information; consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information; access to consumers' files is limited; consumers must give consent for credit reports to be provided to employers; consumers may limit "prescreened" offers of credit and insurance based on information in their credit report; and consumers may seek damages from violators. Consumers may have additional rights under the Fair Credit Reporting Act not summarized here. Identity theft victims and active-duty military personnel have specific additional rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act. We encourage consumers to review their rights pursuant to the Fair Credit Reporting Act by visiting www.consumerfinance.gov/f/201504_cfpb_summary_your-rights-under-fcra.pdf, or by writing Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.
