1. Description of the Incident.

On or about March 9, 2023, Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. became aware of a ransomware incident which may have resulted in the inadvertent exposure of personal information (the "Incident"). No data was encrypted as a result of the Incident. Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. has since diligently worked to determine what happened and what information may have been impacted as a result of this Incident. While Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. did not become aware of the Incident until March 9, 2023, based on the evidence currently available, an investigation conducted by third-party forensic specialists determined, that the unauthorized activity may have occurred between February 2, 2023 and March 9, 2023

Following an investigation conducted by third-party forensic specialists, a data mining exercise was conducted to identify the potentially impacted individuals and what elements of personally identifiable information may have been affected and further efforts were made to locate address information for potentially impacted individuals. The investigation and data mining exercise determined that the following elements of personal information of Maryland residents were potentially impacted as a result of this Incident: names, Social Security numbers, dates of birth, financial account information, payment card information, driver's license/State ID numbers, medical information and health insurance information. The elements of personal information that may have been impacted as a result of this Incident varies per individual.

Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. is committed to ensuring the security of all information in its control and is taking steps to prevent a similar event from occurring in the future, including strengthening its security posture. Notice of Data <<Variable Text 3>>

Dear <<FIRST NAME>> <<LAST NAME>>:

Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. recently experienced a data security incident which may have affected your personal information. Based on our current review, we have no indication that your personal information has been or will be used inappropriately, but we wanted to make you aware of the incident, the measures we have taken in response, and to provide details on the proactive steps you can take to help protect your information. We take the protection and proper use of personal information seriously and are working to prevent a similar incident from occurring again in the future. <<CA Residents: This notification was not delayed by law enforcement.>>

What Happened

On or about March 9, 2023, Cummins Behavioral Health Systems, Inc. discovered a ransom note within its environment, placed by an unauthorized individual. During a typical ransomware incident, cybercriminals try to encrypt or “lock” an organization’s digital files in an attempt to get paid for a digital key to unlock the files. Significantly, no encryption occurred as a result of the incident. We promptly launched an investigation, engaged a national cybersecurity firm to assist in assessing the scope of the incident and took steps to mitigate the potential impact to our community. Unfortunately, these types of incidents are becoming increasingly common and even organizations with some of the most sophisticated IT infrastructure available are affected. We have worked diligently to determine what happened and what information was involved as a result of this incident. A third-party forensic investigation determined the incident occurred between February 2, 2023 and March 9, 2023. <<RI Residents: The forensic investigation further determined that the incident potentially impacted approximately <<written number>> (<<#>>) Rhode Island residents.>>

The elements of your personal information that may have been impacted may have included, and potentially were not limited to, your: name, <<PII data elements>> <<PHI data elements>>. Please note that there is no evidence at this time that any of your personal information has been or will be misused as a result of the incident.

Additional Important Information

For residents of all states:

Fraud Alerts: You can place fraud alerts with the three credit bureaus by phone and online with Equifax (https://assets.equifax.com/assets/personal/Fraud_Alert_Request_Form.pdf); TransUnion (<https://www.transunion.com/fraud-alerts>); or Experian (<https://www.experian.com/fraud/center.html>). A fraud alert tells creditors to follow certain procedures, including contacting you, before they open any new accounts or change your existing accounts. For that reason, placing a fraud alert can protect you, but also may delay you when you seek to obtain credit. As of September 21, 2018, initial fraud alerts last for one year. Victims of identity theft can also get an extended fraud alert for seven years. The phone numbers for all three credit bureaus are at the bottom of this page.

Monitoring: You should always remain vigilant and monitor your accounts for suspicious or unusual activity.

Security Freeze: You also have the right to place a security freeze on your credit report. A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency. You may make that request by certified mail, overnight mail, regular stamped mail, or by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse or a minor under the age of 16, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. As of September 21, 2018, it is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze. You may also place a security freeze for children under the age of 16. You may obtain a free security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:

Implementing an Identity Protection PIN (IP PIN) with the IRS:

To help protect against a fraudulent tax return being filed under your name, we recommend Implementing an Identity Protection PIN (IP PIN) with the IRS. An IP PIN is a six-digit number that prevents someone else from filing a tax return using your Social Security number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number. The IP PIN is known only to you and the IRS. It helps the IRS verify your identity when you file your electronic or paper tax return. Even though you may not have a filing requirement, an IP PIN still protects your account.

If you don't already have an IP PIN, you may get an IP PIN as a proactive step to protect yourself from tax-related identity theft. If you want to request an IP PIN, please note: you must pass an identity verification process; and Spouses and dependents are eligible for an IP PIN if they can pass the identity verification process. The fastest way to receive an IP PIN is by using the online Get an IP PIN tool found at: <https://www.irs.gov/identity-theft-fraud-scams/get-an-identity-protection-pin>. If you wish to get an IP PIN and you don't already have an account on IRS.gov, you must register to validate your identity.

Some items to consider when obtaining an IP PIN with the IRS:

- An IP PIN is valid for one calendar year.

- A new IP PIN is generated each year for your account.

- Logging back into the Get an IP PIN tool, will display your current IP PIN.

- An IP PIN must be used when filing any federal tax returns during the year including prior year returns.

A security freeze is intended to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. To place a security freeze on your credit report, you need to make a request to each consumer reporting agency. You may make that request by certified mail, overnight mail, regular stamped mail, or by following the instructions found at the websites listed below. The following information must be included when requesting a security freeze (note that if you are requesting a credit report for your spouse or a minor under the age of 16, this information must be provided for him/her as well): (1) full name, with middle initial and any suffixes; (2) Social Security number; (3) date of birth; (4) current address and any previous addresses for the past five years; and (5) any applicable incident report or complaint with a law enforcement agency or the Registry of Motor Vehicles. The request must also include a copy of a government-issued identification card and a copy of a recent utility bill or bank or insurance statement. It is essential that each copy be legible, display your name and current mailing address, and the date of issue. As of September 21, 2018, it is free to place, lift, or remove a security freeze. You may also place a security freeze for children under the age of 16. You may obtain a free security freeze by contacting any one or more of the following national consumer reporting agencies:

Implementing an Identity Protection PIN (IP PIN) with the IRS:

To help protect against a fraudulent tax return being filed under your name, we recommend Implementing an Identity Protection PIN (IP PIN) with the IRS. An IP PIN is a six-digit number that prevents someone else from filing a tax return using your Social Security number or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number. The IP PIN is known only to you and the IRS. It helps the IRS verify your identity when you file your electronic or paper tax return. Even though you may not have a filing requirement, an IP PIN still protects your account.

If you don't already have an IP PIN, you may get an IP PIN as a proactive step to protect yourself from tax-related identity theft. If you want to request an IP PIN, please note: you must pass an identity verification process; and Spouses and dependents are eligible for an IP PIN if they can pass the identity verification process. The fastest way to receive an IP PIN is by using the online Get an IP PIN tool found at: <https://www.irs.gov/identity-theft-fraud-scams/get-an-identity-protection-pin>. If you wish to get an IP PIN and you don't already have an account on IRS.gov, you must register to validate your identity.

Some items to consider when obtaining an IP PIN with the IRS:

An IP PIN is valid for one calendar year.

A new IP PIN is generated each year for your account.

Logging back into the Get an IP PIN tool, will display your current IP PIN.

An IP PIN must be used when filing any federal tax returns during the year including prior year returns.
