RE: Data Breach Notification

To Whom It May Concern:

We serve as counsel for Continental Bank located at 15 W S Temple St, Suite 300, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. We write to provide notification of a recent data incident. By providing this notice, Continental Bank does not waive any rights or defenses under Maryland State law, including the data breach notification statute.

Continental Bank recently discovered suspicious activity related to an employee email account. Upon discovery, Continental Bank immediately performed a password reset, and engaged a third-party forensic team to assist with the investigation. The investigation ultimately determined that a subset of emails may have been accessible to an unknown individual between February 7, 2017 and August 28, 2023. While there is no evidence to suggest information has been or will be misused, Continental Bank then began a thorough review in an abundance of caution to determine the type of information potentially affected and to whom that information related. This review was completed on March 4, 2024 and Continental Bank worked to confirm up to date address information to provide notification.

On March 28, 2024, Continental Bank received its results from a National Change of Address (NCOA) search and confirmed this incident potentially affected 11 Maryland residents. The information potentially impacted included first and last name and their Social Security number.

In response to this incident, Continental Bank conducted an investigation and changed account passwords. Additionally, they began providing notice to the potentially impacted individuals on April 1, 2024 via U.S. mail. A copy of the notice is attached as Exhibit A. In an abundance of caution, Continental Bank is offering the potentially impacted individuals complimentary credit monitoring and identity protection services.

Very truly yours,

Jason Goodwin, Esq.

Monitor Your Accounts

We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud by reviewing your credit reports/account statements for suspicious activity and to detect errors. Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus, TransUnion, Experian, and Equifax. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call 1-877-322-8228. Once you receive your credit report, review it for discrepancies and identify any accounts you did not open or inquiries from creditors that you did not authorize. If you have questions or notice incorrect information, contact the credit reporting bureau.

You have the right to place an initial or extended fraud alert on a credit file at no cost. An initial fraud alert is a one-year alert that is placed on a consumer's credit file. Upon seeing a fraud alert, a business is required to take steps to verify the consumer's identity before extending new credit. If you are a victim of identity theft, you are entitled to an extended fraud alert lasting seven years. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, please contact any of the three credit reporting bureaus listed below.

As an alternative to a fraud alert, you have the right to place a credit freeze on a credit report, which will prohibit a credit bureau from releasing information in the credit report without your express authorization. The credit freeze is designed to prevent credit, loans, and services from being approved in your name without your consent. However, you should be aware that using a credit freeze may delay, interfere with, or prohibit the timely approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding a new loan, credit, mortgage, or any other account involving the extension of credit. Pursuant to federal law, you cannot be charged to place or lift a credit freeze on your credit report. To request a credit freeze, you will need to provide the following information:

1. Full name (including middle initial as well as Jr., Sr., III, etc.);
2. Social Security number;
3. Date of birth;
4. Address for the prior two to five years;
5. Proof of current address, such as a current utility or telephone bill;
6. A legible photocopy of a government-issued identification card (e.g., state driver's license or identification card); and
7. A copy of either the police report, investigative report, or complaint to a law enforcement agency concerning identity theft, if you are a victim of identity theft.

Should you wish to place a fraud alert or credit freeze, please contact the three major credit reporting bureaus listed below:
